DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a method of providing a paved area, classified in class 52, subclass 747.12.
- II. Claims 10-14, drawn to a method of removing formable material, classified in class 249, subclass 49.
- III. Claims 15-19, drawn to a structure comprising tile and concrete, classified in class 52, subclass 391.
- IV. Claims 20 and 21, drawn to a pre-stressed concrete tile, classified in class 52, subclass 223.6.
- V. Claims 22-24, drawn to a method of providing concrete paving tile, classified in class 52, subclass 747.11.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the method of Group I does not require a shovel guide tool for removing the wet concrete. The subcombination has separate utility such as for forming a planter.

Inventions III and IV are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the tile of Group III does not require tendons or a bottom surface with surface relief features. The subcombination has separate utility such as for forming a floor slab.

Inventions I and II and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product made does not require the methods of Groups I or II, as the tile of Group III may be placed on concrete and subsequently grouted with concrete.

Inventions of Groups I and II are unrelated to the invention of Group III. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the inventions of Groups I and II do not require the step of cutting a pre-stressed concrete paving tile.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Timothy E. Siegal on September 29, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
